

DARBY

The leader of the trio.

Smarter than the boys and quietly more sensitive.

Marginalized and outcasted in the predominately white town. Connected to the boys the only way they knew how: stunts

Was destined to leave the small town to bigger and broader things

MONTY

1 day shoot. Caemo.

A degenerate ex rodeo cowboy living alone on his farm. He dabbles in cocaine, alcohol, and everything else that he can still get his calloused hands on.

Monty is the embodiment of what will happen to Lance if refuses to “grow up” and let go of his chaotic habits.
